MANNER AND MEANS

It was a part of the conspiracy that:

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to accomplish its objects, defendants RUBEN LAMAR GOBER and ANTHONY RAHEEM JACKSON, and others unknown to the grand jury, committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere:

1. On or about April 1, 2009:
  - a. a person working with law enforcement (hereinafter, the “buyer”) agreed with defendant RUBEN LAMAR GOBER, known to the buyer only as “Umar,” that defendant GOBER would sell counterfeit FRNs having a face value of $1,000 to the buyer in exchange for $300 genuine United States currency from the buyer; and
  - b. the buyer and defendant GOBER agreed that the exchange would occur the next day at the Neshaminy Motor Inn, 2345 Old Lincoln Hwy, Trevose, in Bensalem

Township, Pennsylvania.

2. On or about April 2, 2009:

a. there were telephone calls between the buyer and defendant RUBEN LAMAR GOBER during which they re-negotiated the transaction and agreed that defendant GOBER would sell counterfeit FRNs having a face value of $5,000 to the buyer in exchange for $700 genuine currency, plus an additional $50 in gas money, and that the exchange would occur at the same place and time, and defendant GOBER stated that his “little cousin” would accompany him to the exchange;

b. at approximately 6:20 p.m., defendants GOBER and ANTHONY RAHEEM JACKSON arrived together at the Neshaminy Motor Inn in a car registered to defendant GOBER;

c. before getting out of the car, defendant GOBER removed thirty counterfeit $20 FRNs and one counterfeit $10 FRN from the armrest of his car and handed the counterfeit FRNs, having a total face value of $610, to defendant JACKSON;

d. after getting out of the car, defendant GOBER removed a small box from the trunk, and defendants GOBER and JACKSON walked together to the room number provided by the buyer;

e. when defendants GOBER and JACKSON reached the room, defendant JACKSON was carrying the box;

f. defendant JACKSON knocked on the door, saw law enforcement was present, and then threw the box away from himself. The box was later found to contain 118 counterfeit $50 FRNs, nine counterfeit $20 FRNs, and 30 counterfeit $10 FRNs, for a total face value of $6,380 in counterfeit FRNs. The counterfeit FRNs contained in the box were printed on an Epson All-in-One printer, serial number KNTF081405, that was located at defendant JACKSON's residence along with genuine currency attached to a sheet of copy paper and two sheets of uncut counterfeit currency matching both the genuine currency attached to the copy paper and the counterfeit currency found in the box.
